LOCATION

The premises are located in the centre of Ashford Town, with 54 High Street being on the north side of the High Street at its junction with North Street, where it adjoins number 2 North Street on the western side. 2 North Street then extends to the junction with Chapel Mews. There are multiple nearby occupiers, the most notable include Boots, McDonalds, WH Smith and Iceland.

Ashford, one of Kent's designated growth centres, currently has a population of approximately 75,000 inhabitants and is set to grow substantially in the next 20 years. The town is centrally located within the county, benefitting from a fine communications network via the A20/M20 and five mainline railways. Ashford International Passenger station gives direct access to northern continental Europe via Eurostar and London is some 38 minutes distant via HS-1.

DESCRIPTION

This attractive Grade II listed building, believed to have been built sometime during the 17th Century, benefits from notable features including timber sash windows and bracketed and dentil cornice detailing to the upper external elevations. The ground floor space is divided into three separate retail units each with fully glazed frontage.

Unit 1 is situated on the corner of the High Street and North Street and therefore benefits from a large return frontage.
