LOCATION

Seabrooke House is located on the eastern side of Church Road, nearly opposite its junction with Queen Street approximately yards south-east of Ashford town centre. This is a central location within the historic market town of Ashford, one of Kent's designated growth centres which currently has a population of approximately 75,000 inhabitants and is set to grow substantially in the next 20 years. The town is centrally located within the county, benefitting from a fine communications network via the A20/M20 and five mainline railways. Ashford International Passenger station can give direct access to northern continental Europe via Eurostar and London is some 38 minutes distant via HS-1.

DESCRIPTION

This detached brick building under a slate roof provides accommodation on ground, first and second floors. The first floor suite is available and provides a little over 1,100 sq.ft. of accommodation in three rooms, having the benefit of shared WC facilities. The accommodation is light and airy and benefits from gas fired central heating. The main office to the front of the suite benefits from two bay windows and is open plan in nature, and there are two rear offices. Externally there are 7 car parking spaces available with this accommodation.
